POCKET SCHEDULE

RPG Sessions

Our game masters aren't just running games – they're crafting stories you'll be telling at every game night for years to come. From D&D's magical realms to Star Wars' distant galaxies, from Shadowrun's chrome-slick streets to Warhammer's brutal battlefields, your perfect adventure is here.

RPG sessions run in three blocks on Saturday, March 7 (11AM-2PM, 2:30-5:30PM, and 6-9PM) and two blocks on Sunday, March 8 (11AM-2PM and 2-5PM). Each session listing includes everything you need to know about the adventure – rules system, character levels, content warnings, the works. Take a minute to read through them before claiming your seat at the table.

Endor Temple

Endor Temple has two distinct programs that are for different age groups. The "Padawan Training Experience" which is geared towards ages 5-11 and our "Introduction to Lightsaber Choreography" program which is geared towards ages 12 and up.

The "Introduction to Lightsaber Choreography" program teaches our Lightsaber performance choreography using the same techniques that we use to create our own fights. We teach our guests four of our choreography sets and then allow them to choreograph their own short performances.

Board Game Museum

Our tabletop gaming museum is a small taste of 5000 years of gaming history. From ancient Egypt to early modern times, our fully interactive and playable exhibit allow you to explore the games your ancestors played.

Available all day. Located on the Second Floor.

Board Game Swap

Bring a board game you're ready to part with, take home something new. It's that simple. One player's dusty shelf-dweller is another player's golden find. No cost, just bring a game and leave with a fresh adventure.

Sunday 11am to 3pm. Endor Temple Training Facility

Board Game Freeplay

Our extensive board game library is available for you and your friends to enjoy.

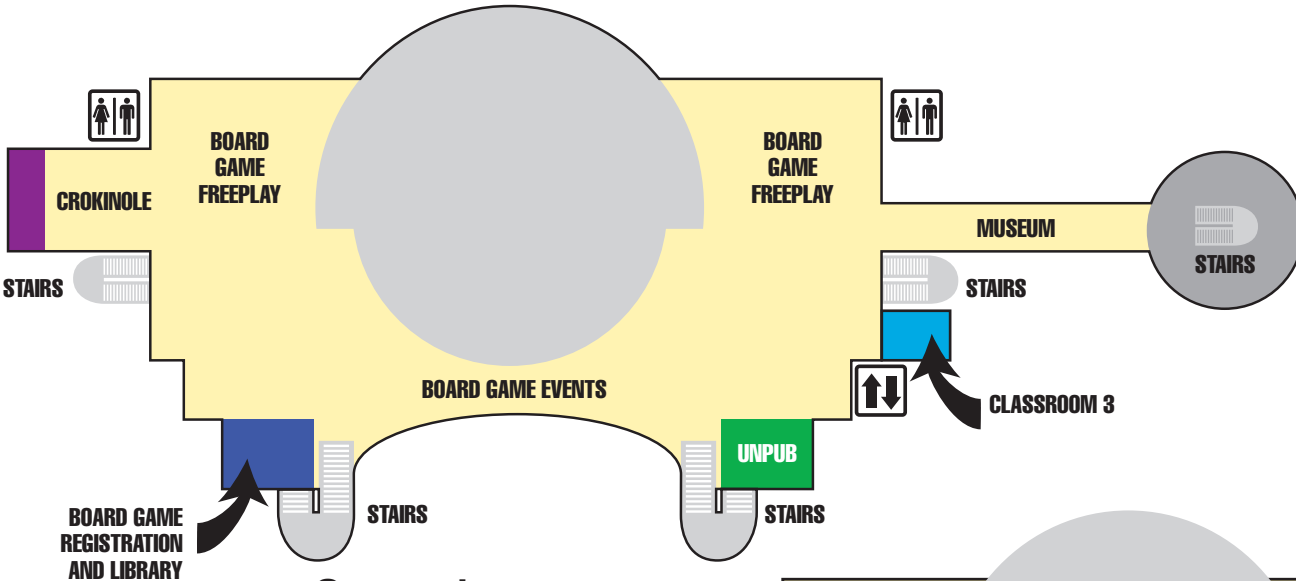

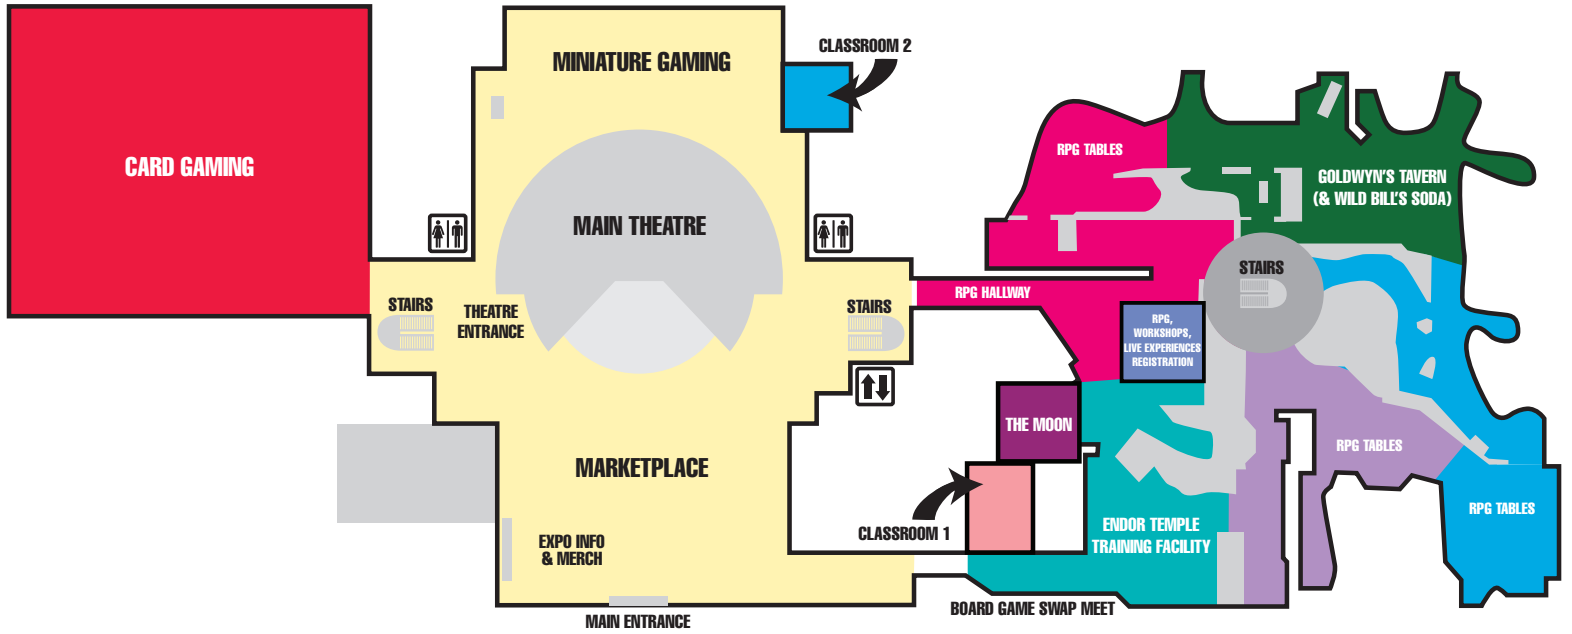

Available all day, located on Second Floor.

Playtesting

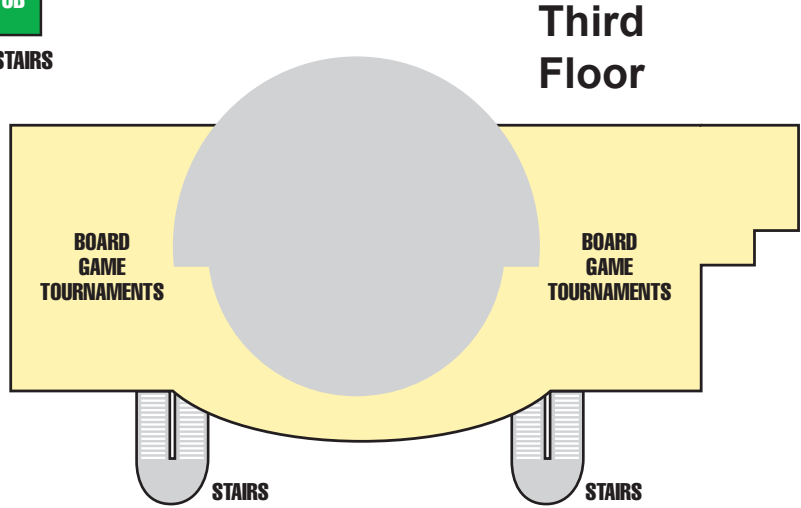

Come test the next big thing that the local game designers have cooking! Our Playtesting section is where game designers have their own creations available for players to test. Give your feedback to help make the next great game!

All playtesting games can be found on the 2nd floor in the board games area opposite the board game library.
